

K-Love radio provides a vital relief to me as I drive for a living, and without it, I would be a much more stressed individual. I firmly believe that if the changes being considered by the FCC to allow LPFM stations to take priority over the current FM translator type of service by which K-LOVE is broadcast a great dis-service would be done to my community, and the community that listens to K-LOVE throughout the United States.

Thank you.
Robert H. Rundquist